A mass meeting in the interest of Bristow, as candidate for President, was held in Chicago at McCormick's Hall Monday evening, and largely attended by an enthusiastic crowd. Speeches were made by the Rev. Robert Collyer, E. Larned, Mr. Arnold, and others. Resolutions were adopted setting forth that the nomination of Bristow would have a tendency to unite the Republican party and secure the co-operation of its better elements, and urging that every proper influence be brought to bear on the delegates to the Cincinnati Convention to induce them to vote for his nomination. The Republican Reform Club of New York Tuesday night adopted an address to send to the Cincinnati Convention favoring reform and the nomination of Bristow. Seventy prominent members were selected as a delegation to Cincinnati. Among them are Dorman B. Eaton, Francis C. Barlow, Lloyd Aspinwall, John Jay, Jackson Schultz, John Jacob Astor, and Messrs. Dodge, Chittenden, Astor and Roosevelt.

AN OUTRAGE UPON THE PEOPLE.

The proposition of the Central Pacific railroad to create a sinking fund for the payment of its indebtedness to the Government is a good one for the Company. The Company desire to reconvey and have credit for 7,000,000 acres of land in Nevada and in Utah at $2.50 per acre, equal to about eighteen millions of dollars. It would certainly be a good speculation to dispose of so much worthless land for such an immense sum of money but it will cost them several millions to succeed in having such an iniquitous measure enacted into a law. If they are really anxious to settle with the Government why do they not offer to cede some or all of their California lands. They have sucked the juice out of their Nevada and Utah orange, and now want to sell the skin for the original cost of the whole.

A FINE BODY.

The members composing the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows, at present in session in Reno are, almost without exception, the most intelligent, representative body of men ever convened together in this State. Such an assemblage reflects credit not only upon the Order, but upon the State. Their actions while here can not fail to be productive of good for the whole human family. We glory in the fact of their convening in Reno, and can proudly boast of it in the future.

THE "HERALD" ON THE CHINESE.—The New York Herald publishes the memorial to the President of the Six Chinese Companies in answer to the resolutions adopted by the mass-meeting in San Francisco, in April last. The editor says, in commenting on the subject: "The right of these people to come here rests on the treaty and is as perfect as that of persons of European birth. The treaty and our own laws ought to be so modified as to keep out the most objectionable classes. Several changes are necessary, but the most important is the regulation forbidding Mongolian women to be landed at any port of this country without evidence that they are wives or daughters of male emigrants, and the signing of a bond by the officers of the steamships, with heavy forfeiture if women so admitted do not reside with their husband or father in ordinary relation."

MISS KAVANAGH, a Roman Catholic maiden lady of Damariscotta, Me., has given $50,000 to finish the Roman Catholic Convent in Portland, Me., which is near the residence of Bishop Henly, of the Portland diocese.

THE CENTENNIAL EXPOSITION.

State, Foreign, and Private Buildings—Other Objects of Interest—Glass Works—Etc.

PHILADELPHIA, May 30.

EDITOR JOURNAL.—To-day we made a tour of the various State buildings, to ascertain their relative progress toward completion. The majority of them are built upon State Avenue, which runs along near the edge of the grounds not very far from George's Hill, but some are situated on the right of this as seen upon the maps, and some to the south. The most eastern building is that of

VIRGINIA,

Which is not very large. It is a one-story building with a sort of pavilion on top. A notice at the front informs us that it is through the generosity of Hon. E. G. Booth that Virginia offers this "modest building," as it is termed, to her friends from the different parts of the globe. The

KANSAS

Building is next. It is a good sized rambling structure. It will pretty soon be ready, but workmen are busy all over it and the sharp warning, "No Admittance," stares us in the face. To make a digression, there are many different ways in use of communicating to visitors the knowledge that they can not be allowed in departments where work is going on, and the different ways are to some extent characteristic of the nations using them. An American always puts up the short, sharp sentence, "No Admittance." Some of the foreigners, on the other hand, are very vague in their manner of doing it. Going to the Mexican department the other day, where they are still busy, we saw painted on a piece of wood placed across the entrance the polite invitation, "Be kind enough not to come in." Quite a contrast between that and "No Admittance."

NEW JERSEY'S

Building is next and it is one of the best. It has been finished for some time. It is situated close beside the Women's Pavilion.

OHIO

Has a sandstone building. It is the only State building constructed of anything more substantial than wood. The stone of which it is built was furnished by the proprietors of various quarries in the State. Each course of stone is from a different quarry, and twenty-one quarries are represented. At the back is a frame annex, and these together make the largest private building on the grounds. The interior is not yet finished.

INDIANA'S

Building is completed. On the walls inside are tablets giving statistics of the various counties and cities of the State.

ILLINOIS

Has not her's quite completed yet, nor has Wisconsin, and Michigan is the furthest behind of all. She shipped her house in numbered pieces, and when it arrived several car-loads were missing. Hence it will not be ready for some time.

NEW HAMPSHIRE'S

Is finished on the outside, but there is still work in the inside. It will contain a restaurant.

CONNECTICUT

Has a few historic articles. A picture of the Charter Oak is inclosed in a frame composed of a hollow section of the oak itself. A Connecticut ham made from the wood of the Charter Oak, and the gun with which Israel Putnam shot the wolf are hung up for inspection. There is also a banner containing the names of all the Governors of Connecticut.

The design of the Connecticut cutlery was originated by Ike Marvel, author of "Reveries of a Bachelor," who gave a great deal of time to perfecting the plans. The

MASSACHUSETTS

Building takes the lead in the arrangement and furnishing of the inside. On the right is the Governor's reception room, and across the hall the room of the State Board of Managers. These are both elegantly furnished. There is a coat room, a telegraph office, a press and reading room, and a small library of both works of fiction and solid reading. Other buildings have some of these conveniences, but in the number of them and in the style in which it is furnished, the Massachusetts building surpasses them all.

DELAWARE

Building is well on toward completion.

MARYLAND

Is ready, but the things are not all arranged inside, where there are mineral, wood and oyster collections, and an exhibition of drawings. Outside of the building are locomotives of the Baltimore and Ohio Railway Company.

TENNESSEE,
IOWA AND MISSOURI

Have frame buildings, not completed. These buildings, from Ohio to Missouri, are situated in a row on the northern side of State Avenue, and some distance along the same, very near the Observatory on George's Hill, is that of

RHODE ISLAND,
Little, like the State, and still in course of construction. Across on the other side of the avenue is the structure of

CALIFORNIA AND NEVADA,
Which is much behindhand, but is beginning to assume shape. Near it is that of

NEW YORK,
Which makes perhaps the best architectural appearance of all the State buildings, and is very nicely furnished inside.

MISSISSIPPI
Has a very nice and curious building. It is made of unbarked logs, and from the eaves hangs the long tree moss of the Southern States.

WEST VIRGINIA'S
Building is very nearly ready. The back portion of it is devoted to a display of her resources, and large blocks of coal abound. Specimens of wood are cut out like books, and have labels put on the blocks after the manner of the titles of books, and being arranged in book cases, look very much like books. This arrangement is quite a nice idea.

ARKANSAS
Has a large circular building, not quite finished and very bare inside.

PENNSYLVANIA'S
Building is just north of Machinery Hall. It is not quite ready, but from appearances will be one of the nicest when it is.

CANADA
Has a very nice structure. It is nothing more than a shed built of lumber artistically piled up so as to serve as a lumber exhibition. It is near Machinery Hall.

GREAT BRITAIN, GERMANY,
And other governments have put up separate buildings, but to keep on in this way, speaking of every private building on the grounds, would be too tedious. Some of the State buildings contain exhibits but most of them do not pretend to be anything more than headquarters or loafing places for people from the respective States. They nearly all contain, or will contain registers for visitors and the newspapers published in the State.

FRAZEE.
Grand Encampment I. O. O. F.

The report of the Grand Patriarch and Grand Scribe show the Encampment Branch of the Order of Odd Fellows in this State to be in a very healthy and growing condition. From the report of F. V. Drake, Grand Scribe, we make the following extracts:

Suicide—Small Pox—State University—Miscellaneous.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 7.

Ferdinand Schlingensie commited suicide in Lone Mountain Cemetery this morning, by shooting himself once through the body and again in the forehead. He was a jeweler, lately in the employ of Edwards & Tuckey, on Merchant street. He had been somewhat unwell for a few weeks, but otherwise there is nothing to account for the suicide.

Two more cases of small pox are reported this morning, both whites, one on Dupont and the other on Commercial street. Both are reported to be no light attacks. The cases at the Hospital are progressing favorably. No cases are known in Chinatown, which is always the case until one dies, when the fact comes out.

Commencement exercises at the University of California begin this morning. The grounds are thronged with students and their friends. The weather is very favorable. The exercises will take place in the grove on the west side of the grounds. The Fourth Artillery Band, from Fort Point, are present. The present graduating class numbers thirty, being the largest in the history of the University.

It has been an open question among lawyers whether stock could be transferred on the company's books before an assessment is due, though the custom has been that an assessment must be paid before transfer. It will be tested in the courts.

O'Leary will take another walk and will try and make 500 miles in 6 days.

The State Investment and Insurance Company have declared a dividend of 2 per cent for the month, payable on the 10th.

An assessment of 25 cents per share has been levied by the North Consolidated Mining Company, delinquent in office July 6th.

The Mint will be closed for the annual settlement from June 10 to July 5th. During that time only deposits of refined bullion will be received and paid.

The new Board of Directors propose to run a weekly line soon between New York and San Francisco, but for the present they will run only three steamers a month, on the 10th, 20th and 30th. The next departure from New York will be on the 10th.

A fisherman named Thompson, living at Harbor View, was drowned outside the Heads on Sunday. He was alone in the boat, and it was supposed she was capsized while he was shifting the sail. The body has not been found, but the boat has been picked up.

Only about one thousand (not 180,000) letters were received at the San Francisco Postoffice per lightning express train on Sunday, only forty-seven at Sacramento. While the train was on its journey reports came over the wires to the effect that there were 30,000 letters aboard for Sacramento and 180,000 for this city.

ELECTION

PORLTAND, Ore., June 7.

The Republicans in this county elect one Senator, five Representatives, and the balance of their ticket except Sheriff and School Superintendent. The Democrats elect one Senator and two Representatives. Jeffery, the Democratic candidate for Sheriff, has a majority of 300 over Spaulding, the Republican. Smith, Republican, for County Clerk, has a majority of 380 over Hall, Democrat. The State has undoubtedly gone Democratic. The Democrats claim a good majority in the Legislature, probably twelve on joint ballot.

PIONEER DAIRY SHOP.—Messrs. Enkle & Morris are still at the old stand. Three first-class artistes can always be found on hand, who are second to none on the Pacific coast. There is nothing so luxurious on a warm Summer day, than to sit under the manipulations of one of these artistes. If you are troubled with dandruff, have a headache, or a fit of blues, an application of our justly celebrated "Tonic Magnific" will remove the same as if by magic. Ladies and children wishing anything in the line of hair cutting and shampooing can be waited upon at their residence by Prof. Morris, who is no novice in the business. Hair restoratives, hair oils, bay rum and every thing appertaining to the business always on hand. Give us a trial.

INTELLECTUAL ENTERTAINMENT.—On Saturday evening Mrs. Nina Larowe and Miss Anna Livingston will give an entertainment in the Opera House. Mrs. Larowe has appeared before Eastern audiences, and never has failed to give satisfaction. The newspapers, among which we note the principal ones in New York city, are profuse in their praises of her dramatic ability. Miss Livingston is equally well recommended, receiving flattering compliment from that giant intellectual man, Bishop Simpson. The ladies met with the misfortune of being robbed of $125 in Truckee, which leaves them in rather limited circumstances. Their superior powers of elocution and fine voices, with the fact that they dress in costumes to suit, will give us a treat, the like of which we have not heard for many a day. Admission, only fifty cents.

PERSONAL.—We were pleased to receive a call yesterday from Edward Hoole, Esq., proprietor of the Chicago Enterprise, who is en route to the Centennial, but tarried in Reno one day to visit his brother, Mr. S. F. Hoole.

VERY proud is Morris Ash of his new counter, and he has a right to be. Jim Hollard built it, and Laycock & Lalone done the painting. It is a very creditable job all around.

FOR SALE.—A span of draft mares. One six and the other eight years of age, and sound in all respects. Weigh 1,300. Inquire of John Hoy.

HOME.—Master Archie Haydon, son of Thos. Haydon, is spending his vacation at home. He has made good progress in his studies at the Santa Clara College.

GRAND LODGE, I. O. O. F. OF NEVADA—SESSION OF 1876.

SECOND DAY.

The Grand Lodge assembled at 10 A.M. all the officers and a quorum present.

The Grand Master appointed W. H. Hill and J. C. Smith to fill vacancies on the Committee on Credentials.

Several reports were received and laid over under the rule.

The Grand Lodge decided that during the suspension of a Brother from a Subordinate Lodge, the dues must continue to be charged against him.

A communication was received and read from the Grand Lodge of the United States soliciting the Grand Lodge of Nevada to participate in the Odd Fellows Centennial Celebration at Philadelphia on September 20, 1876. The Grand Lodge of Nevada decided to issue credentials to all members wishing to attend.

The Committee on Legislation indorsed that portion of the Grand Master's report relating to dispensations.

The special Committee on Degree of Rebekah recommended that the Representatives to the G. L. U. S. be instructed to use their influence to procure such legislation as to place Rebekah Lodges in the same position as Subordinate Lodges, as to initiation, admission fee, and officers. Also that Brothers and those qualified to receive said degree must receive the same from a Rebekah Degree Lodge, and that daughters of Odd Fellows, who have attained eighteen years of age, shall be eligible to membership.

In the absence of the N. G. V. G. and all P. G., the Grand Lodge cannot transact business, notwithstanding a quorum may be present.

It was decided to hold the next session of the Grand Lodge in Carson City.

Several reports from Committees were taken up and adopted.

Almost all of the afternoon was consumed in considering previous reports.

Adjourned till 10 A.M. to-day.

RENO is now in the full enjoyment of Spring time, says a correspondent of the Gold Hill News, green fields and budding flowers, and to the eyes of a casual observer presents a lively, healthy and growing appearance. Business of all kinds presents a flourishing look, and quite a number of new buildings are in course of erection. Among the buildings of note now in course of construction are a fine two story brick, 44 feet in width by 100 feet in depth, by Truckee Lodge I. O. O. F., which when finished will not cost less than $20,000; and a fine two story brick 24x50 feet in size, the property of C. C. Powning, the proprietor of the Reno Journal, and another brick 40x100, the property of Mr. James Burke.

MERITED.—Last evening a brutal fellow used very obscene language in the hearing of a lady who was passing, whereupon a citizen told him to stop. The fellow blustered up and informed the citizen that he would do as he pleased. A well directed blow on the left temple, which was delivered with a vim, taught him silence, if not sense.

TEX PIN ALLEY.—Mr. Wintermantle has fitted up two ten pin alleys back of the El Dorado Saloon on Center street. They are tastefully fitted up in an arbor. This will be one of the most popular resorts in the town. Just step around and see how neat and tastefully it is arranged.

PERSONAL.—We were pleased to receive a call yesterday from Edward Hoole, Esq., proprietor of the Chicago Enterprise, who is en route to the Centennial, but tarried in Reno one day to visit his brother, Mr. S. F. Hoole.

VERY proud is Morris Ash of his new counter, and he has a right to be. Jim Hollard built it, and Laycock & Lalone done the painting. It is a very creditable job all around.

FOR SALE.—A span of draft mares. One six and the other eight years of age, and sound in all respects.

Weigh 1,300. Inquire of John Hoy.

VISIT.—The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows will visit Reno Lodge, No. 19, this evening.
